

AGENDA

November 8, 2018

10:00 Welcome	Kumar B. Rajan, PhD
10:05 Cognitive aging in older African Americans and Whites: Lessons Learned from Rush cohort studies	Lisa L. Barnes, PhD
10:45 UC Davis Alzheimer's Disease Center Overview	Charles DeCarli, MD
11:05 Break
11:20 Novel compounds in reducing oxidative stress and amyloid load in cell culture and in vivo	Silvia Hilt, PhD
11:35 Age-related changes in neural event processing and segmentation	Zachariah Reagh, PhD
11:50 Variations in the flexible use of environment-specific representations in aging	Martha Forloines, PhD
12:05 Lunch and Poster Session
1:20 Alzheimer's Disease Funding Opportunities	Charles DeCarli, MD
1:40 Brain Health: Looking Back to Move Forward	Rachel Whitmer, PhD
2:00 Vascular Contributions to Brain Aging	Joel Kramer, PsyD
2:20 Break
2:35 Alzheimer's Biospecimen Resources	Brittany Dugger, PhD
2:55 Dietary-modulated Bile Acid Signaling in Regulating Cognitive Health Health and Dysfunction	Prasant Jena, PhD
3:10 Does Traffic-Related Air Pollution Increase the Risk of Alzheimer's disease in a genetically susceptible rat model?	Kelley Patten, GSR
3:25 Closing Remarks and Poster Awards	Charles DeCarli, MD